The Andrew Meyers Story

written by Eva M. Myers / 334 Owl Hill Rd. / Lititz, PA 17543 / May 18, 1980

ANDREW MEYERS – Born 9-10-1805 in Baden, Germany, died 10-4-1889 Lancaster, PA

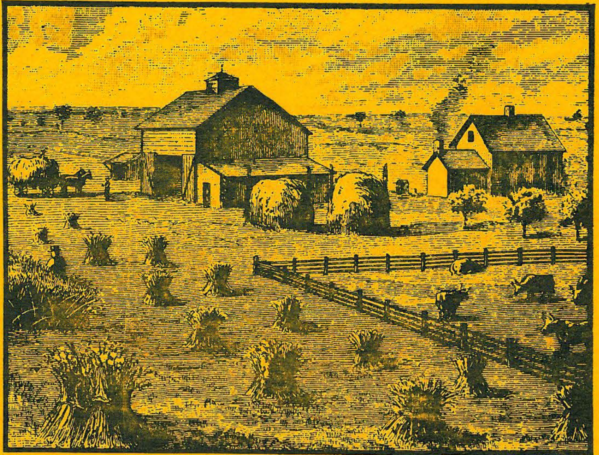
In 1817 at the Port of Philadelphia a young boy in his twelfth year was sold on the auction block to an unidentified Lancaster Co. PA farmer who paid his passage and owned his services until he became of age. Did his parents die at sea? Were any other members of his family indentured at the same time? This bit of information was found in a History (1913) of Carroll Co. IL in a biographical sketch of his third son, Benjamin K. Meyers, born March 21, 1847 in East Petersburg, PA.

The original naturalization paper of Andrew Meyer is on file at the Lancaster Co. PA Court House dated 25th August 1838 and signed with his signature – Andrew Meyer.

Andrew married Nancy N. Kauffman (# B7114 in the Kauffman Geneology book – 1940) of Hempfield Twp. Lancaster Co. Nancy was known in the family as Anna. They lived in East Petersburg, PA 1842 to 1850, owning 6 acres, 2 houses and 2 cattle. In 1846, it was noted in the Tax Record, he had loans invested in other states of $878.00. Might Andrew and Anna have gone to Illinois after their marriage and returned to Lancaster Co.? Where was Andrew in the years from 1817 to 1842?

The 1840 census index of Pennsylvania has an Andrew Meyers #251 in Turbett Twp. in Juniata Co. There were other Kauffman families in the same area. Peter Henselman in Hains Twp. Center Co. and Christian Roalin in Rescomb Twp. Berks Co. are close neighbors of Andrew in East Petersburg, in the 1850 Census, all being born in Germany. Did Andrew visit old friends and persuade them to return to Lancaster Co. with him?

Andrew and his family moved to a farm in Manheim Twp. near the city of Lancaster, PA in 1851. His wife died here July 18, 1870 at age 55. She was buried in East Petersburg. Andrew sold the farm and with his son Christian and daughter Elizabeth moved to Ogle Co., IL. He bought a small farm near Forrestan, IL, lived there until 1885 when he returned to Lancaster to stay with his daughter Martha Shaar (widow of Adam). He died Oct. 4, 1889 at age 84. His obituary gives the funeral as held in the Lutheran Church in East Petersburg. He is buried beside his wife Anna. Three small stones in the row read; Andrew K., John K. and Ann K. (no dates). These are of children who died young.



Farm Scene - 19th Century

Andrew and Anna had nine children: Christian, the carpenter, born in 1839 went to Illinois with his father in 1871. He had a small crew and built many Lancaster-County-type-barns in northern Illinois for over thirty years. He never married and lived with the family of his brother Benjamin. He died in Illinois at the age of 77.

Elizabeth, born about 1838, married Hoak, had a son Milton and was living in Illinois in 1889 when her father died. She had a daughter Catherine, wife of William Epply of York, PA. Catherine was remembered in her grandfather's Will in 1889.

Mary K., born in 1841, married Henry E. Behmer. They had a small truck farm and attended the farmer's Curb Market in Lancaster City, a distance of eight miles from their home near Lititz, PA. They traveled by Market Wagon, starting at three o'clock in the morning on the three hour trip and returned when all their products were sold. Grandmother Behmer had a saffron bed in her garden. The dried stamens of this autumn corcus were sold by weight – a dime on one side of the scales and the dried herb on the other. It was used to flavor meat and vegetables, especially Chicken Pot Pie, a favorite Lancaster Co. meal. Mary

It is believed Peter MOYER/MEYER? came to America c.a. 1742 with bros. Jacob, Wm., & Henry. Their widowed mother may also have come with them from Germany or Switzerland. Peter had 5 sons: John, Peter, Samuel (my line), Jacob & Henry. They settled in PA, prob. Berks Co., then moved to VA, finally settling in Fayetteville, Lincoln Co., TN where Peter, Sr. died at age 101!

I am interested in birthplace, wife's name & further information on Peter, Sr.

"Pennsylvania Marriages" lists a Peter MOYER m. Mary WAGENER, 25 June 1745. Was this my Peter, Sr.?

"PA Archives" 3rd series, Vol. 18 by Egle listes Peter MEYER, taxable Bethel Twnsp. Berk Co. 1768, 1779 & 1780. In 1781 acreage is listed under Margret MEYER only. If Peter was then serving in Continental Army would tax assessor have listed that property in wife's name only?

I will be pleased to correspond with anyone having information on this life. A Peter MEYERS, Preacher, is mentioned in MOYER Family Genealogy by A. J. Fretz. I don't believe this is my Peter, but could be. Need more information to confirm or deny this.

and Henry had eight children.

Magdalene (Martha), born in 1846, married Adam B. Shaar and lived in Lancaster, PA. She was a widow in 1876 with two small sons, William and Harvey. Harvey lived with his mother and William was living in Gary, IN and had a wife, Jessie, when their mother died in 1926 at age 80.

Benjamin K., born in 1847, enlisted in Capt. Hebble's Mounted Infantry in 1864 at age 17 and served his country until 1866. He served an Apprenticeship with a Lancaster Co. blacksmith, went to Illinois several years before his father and followed his trade in Ogle and Carroll Counties. He married Amanda Eckman in 1871 and purchased a farm near Lamark, IL in 1874. His two sons, several grandsons, and now great-grandsons, have been farming the land in northern Illinois for over a century.

Abraham K., born in 1853, was an apprentice butcher in 1870 and stayed in the Lancaster area. We know very little of Abraham. He died Aug. 3, 1904 and is buried near his parents in East Petersburg, PA.

The descendants of Andrew Meyers hope to find the descendants of other Meyer or Meyers immigrants who entered the Port of Philadelphia in 1817.

NOTE: Quinter Stitzel of Lanmark, IL, a grandson of Benjamin K. Meyers had written an inquiry to our Lanc. Co. Hist. Soc. about a year ago asking about indenture records of Andrew Meyers. They do not have any, but I found his letter in their files and we have been exchanging family data. We searched the Court House, hoping to find a Release of Indenture but did not find anything. We did find the Naturalization paper.

I am a granddaughter of Mary K. (Meyers) Behmer.

JUST ONE SHORT YEAR

JASON B. MYERS

Born 28 Sept. 1862 Died 26 Sept. 1863

While in deep solitude at home
This lovely sabbath day
My straying thoughts incline to roam
To things thats passed away.

They call to mind a darling child
That sleeps beneath the sod
As sweet a babe as ever smiled
And then returned to God

He was the little household pet
That twined around each heart
The ties that we cannot forget
Though we are called to part

T'was on a lovely sabbath day
That first he saw the light
And on the sabbath that we lay
His body from our sight

Just one short year our master gave
To us this sacred trust
And then we laid him in the grave
To crumble into dust

Although we miss the sunny smile
That played upon his face
And did our grief and care beguile
Ere he had run his race

Though we are left to mourn in grief
With sorrow stricken brow
This thought affords us great relief,
He is an angel now.

None but a mother thus bereft
Can know the anguish sore
When by the ruthless hand of death
Her darling is no more

Oh, help us in our grief to say
And humbly feel the same
The Lord doth give and take away
And blessed be His name

And when a few more days are passed
A few more troubles borne
We hope to meet in heaven at last
Where parting is unknown

Yes, there amoung the infant throng
Our little angel see
Tuning his happy song of praise
Through all eternity.

So far, much of our copy has been information on the families from PA, OH, IN, WI, & NY. This is wonderful as so many readers trace their roots to these States.

I would be equally delighted to hear from readers in other States.

This issue, I challenge our readers in the great State of Texas to send me a Texas Pioneer story about one of their MEYER(S) families or (Spelling variation).

Pioneers of Michigan

William H. H. Myers – Betsey M. Herron

by Charles W. Myers / 36824 Ladywood / Livonia, MI 48154 Secretary, Myers Family Assoc.

Betsey Maria HERRON, first child of Philo and Lucy (ALDRICH) HERRON, was born 5 April 1824, Conquest, NY; moved to MI with her parents at age 11. Betsey married 16 Sept. 1841, Waverly Twp., MI to William Henry Harrison MYERS.

William H. H. MYERS was born 11 Sept. 1815, second child of Josiah Jr. and Ruth (WHELAN) MYERS of Oneida Co., NY and grandson of Josiah MYERS from The Netherlands. William was a native of Oneida Co., NY but grew to adulthood in Genesee Co., NY as his father died when he was age 10.

In the Spring of 1836, he and brother, Mallory Hiram MYERS walked, via Canada, to Michigan. For six months he worked in White Pigeon, St. Joseph Co., MI. He then returned to New York and brought out to the prairie of White Pigeon his mother, Ruth, brothers – Reuben James and Merlin Mudge, and sisters – Ruth Ann and Sara O.

By Fall of 1836 they were permanently settled in a maple forest on the W. 1/2 of S.W. 1/4 of Section 35 as the first settlers in Bloomingdale Twp., Van Buren Co., MI. William built a crude log cabin and soon a log house. Their nearest neighbors were seven miles away. In the Winter of 1837 he made slashings preparatory to crops. During the Winter of 1838-39 he taught the first school. He became a Free-Will Baptist. In 1839 the first school house was built. The first marriage was that of his sister, Ruth Ann.

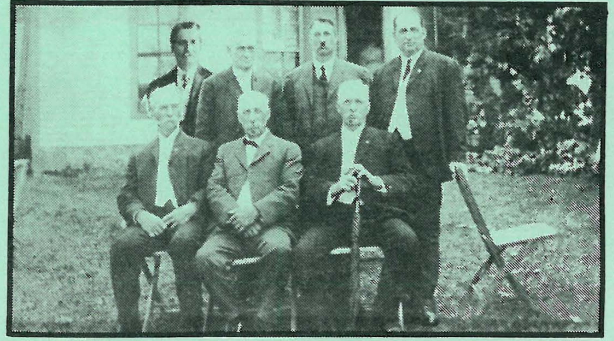
Shortly after the HERRONS arrived in 1841, he married Betsey Maria HERRON. William H. H. MYERS died 3 Oct. 1865 in Bloomingdale Twp., MI and is buried at Robinson Cemetery, Gobles, MI. Betsey married second, in 1871 to Charles R. PARKER. PARKER died 24 Sept. 1885, age 74 and was buried at Robinson Cemetery. After his death Betsey moved to her son Rolla's in Kalamazoo, MI. She died at Kalamazoo, 7 June 1900 and was buried at the Robinson Cemetery, Gobles, MI.

The children of Betsey and William H. H. MYERS, born Bloomingdale Twp., Van Buren Co., MI:

George Washington b. 21 July 1842
Melvin Ralyea b. 29 Dec. 1844, d. 2 Feb. 1847
Amanda Marilla b. 16 Feb. 1847
Charles Harrison b. 31 Mar. 1849
Calvin Dennis b. 2 Sept. 1851
Arvin Whelan b. 22 Aug. 1853
Frank Clark b. 29 Apr. 1856
Edward William b. 12 Sept. 1858
Rolla Gilbert b. 12 June 1862

After the death of W. H. H. MYERS and before the turn of the century, the seven sons of W. H. H. MYERS and their families began to hold reunions at their mother's in Gobleville, MI. After their mother's death and before the families spread, it was decided to form an official association for the purpose to arrange annual reunions. At the next reunion in 1903, the organization was formed and officers elected. This association has continued ever since and except during some war years has had an annual reunion until a few years ago when younger members were less acquainted with those from the other seven brothers. There was also during these years a revolving "Big Letter" that went from one member to the next. Each removing their old letter and adding a new one. As this became larger and took longer around the circuit, it lost its value and was replaced with a news letter by the secretary of news contributed by the members plus items of interest in our genealogy. As secretary, I keep a family chart on all the descendants with normal statistics and biographies. In order that all descendants be members we are supported solely by contributions.

Standing: Frank, Arvin, Edward, Rolla. Seated: George, Charles, Calvin



Editor's Note: Further details of this fine pioneer family can be found in the books, "DESCENDANTS OF LUCY (ALDRICH) HERRON 1803-1869" and "THE DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON MYERS 1815-1865" both written by Charles Wayne Myers.

YOUNG ERI MEYER

by Mr. Patrick O. Bowman / Box 152 / Mount Gretna, PA 17064

Eri MEYER was born in North Annville Twp., Lebanon Co., PA on 8 Feb. 1845, a son of John L. and Catherine (LIGHT) MEYER. He was a descendant of Rudolph MEYER and John LIGHT, important early settlers in PA.

His brothers and sisters were: Henry b. 1823, Samuel b. 1825, John L. b. 1825, Joseph b. 1827, Catherine b. 1828, Veronica b. 1837, Rudolph b. 1840, Erza b. 1842.

Eri MEYER furnished an important chapter in the history of the MEYER family and in the history of our country but he was destined to die at the early age of 18.

He was, and still is a family hero and the kind that America produces to become famous. However short his life, he was a farmer, a scholar, a traveler and a soldier in combat during the Civil War. It may be fairly safe to assert that he would have reached great heights had he survived that war.

While he was living in frontier Chicago and also while in the Army he wrote to his family in Lebanon Co., PA. Some of these letters were kept with loving care by members of his family and handed down to succeeding generations. He died in Knoxville, TN in 1863.

Spelling and Punctuation in these Letters is the same as in the Originals

Letter No. 1

From Eri to Brother Samuel

"32 Railroad Center In Chicago
May 25, 1862

My Dear Brother:

I should write home but what I know not for nothing of consequence is transpiring here.

Chicago must be quite a different place from what it was when you were here, as most of the large public buildings have been built since that time.

Business is very late this season but in a few weeks will commence right as I am informed by some of the principal businessmen.

When I came I advertised for a situation and had a fine prospect for early situation but the rascal cheated at least I say cheated for he did so candidly, tomorrow I am starting out again for a place when I will get one remains to be seen, but intend in course of the week. The times for bookkeepers has been passed before we came, but will take a situation in any large establishment for almost any kind of work if an opportunity presents, there are three commercial colleges in the city, which makes it so difficult for a person to get a situation. I have tried at places already where they told me that they have calls for places every day.

If I can get no situation shortly I will get into pretty hard times as living in Chicago is very high and my purse looks already alarming thin although I felt confident of employ before the end of the week.

Ezra left yesterday on the steamer "Comet" for Milwaukee probably arrived there last evening 4 o'clock. He will I think go to Iowa and different places and if he can get no employ probably strike for home shortly, which would no doubt be unadvisable and a course I would not under any circumstances follow for the present, as the West must be tried thoroughly this time before I leave it, but if matters will not till fall assume a different shape here, and I have the means, then I intend going west to teach school, I am already making preparations to meet the issue.

When you receive this letter please write back and answer soon. I have written to a great many people in Lebanon County of whom I received no answers and to them I have just to say they may leave it be.

I would give you a description of Chicago but could not commence unless writing about 12 sheets and so I will abandon it.

The weather is very changeable, more so than I ever heard any where before. One day it may be warm and the next day people walk about with overcoats on, the high winds on the Great Lakes answer for this.

There are over 7,000 prisoners here from the South and hard looking specimens, they are most of them not desiring to go home, but still there are some fools among them.

Business men are preparing already to ship goods to New Orleans as soon as the Mississippi opens and when the time arrives business will assume a different shape from its present form. Fernando Wood, ex-Mayor of New York made a speech here last night and a poor affair it was. Papers are criticising him very much today. Sunday does not stop printers here nor hardly any other person from work. This is the same Wood that instructed New York City to secede from the State and looks like it.

Gen. Franz Sigel, has also made a speech last night at 11 o'clock after a serenade and it met with great gratifications. Showing he is not only a Warrior but a Statesman and Orator.

I would have already sent you Chicago papers but have no chance at present to post them, for if you would see me write at present it would almost turn you inside out, while at my pen and ink you would be terror stricken.

Ezra left his trunk here, he may again return.

In coming here, near the city, we saw a fine prairie where the last years grass was yet standing, (not burned) and could see no end no way's a fine sight it was but have seen more since.

I have seen no natural hill ten feet high since I am here and have been in the country for miles around, and a person is apt to lose himself if the sun does not shine and can't see the city. If Ezra comes home he might tell you how it was last Sunday, the sun did not shine and we were out a little further than usual – Judge the rest.

As I have a fine chance to write, I guess we would drop the subject for the present. Hoping to hear from you all soon.

It is not safe to write to Ezra unless you hear from him, directing you otherwise.

To Mr. Jno Meyer

Give my respects to my friends. I put Rudolph's name on the outside that the Preacher won't meddle with it. Am well."

Editor's Note: The letters of Eri Meyer are in and of themselves fitting tribute and testimony to his spirit, intellect, strength of character and zest for life. They give a glimpse of the real-life drama behind our history which has no match in fiction.

Though this remarkable young man was cut down in his youth, over 100 years ago, something of his personality survives through his letters, as fresh and stirring when read today as they must have been when first written.

The MEYER MIRROR is pleased to present these letters in order, in serial form where space allows in future issues. I hope our readers find them interesting and moving as I did. Mr. Patrick Bowman is to be commended for compiling this collection of Eri's letters and adding the meaningful notations which make reading these a special experience.

It took over a year for me to get names for the descendants and more than two months to paint the family tree on my basement wall; the size is approximately seven feet high by nine feet wide. I completed the tree in December, 1975. At that time it was almost completely up to date. Since then I have kept up descendants as they are sent to me by members of the family. My direct line is kept updated as I am most often in contact with these members of the family. Some of the other lines are not so complete as I hear from those descendants less often.

On each descendant on the tree I have the name of the spouse also. Each generation is painted a different color to make it easier to make out. There are seven generations counting the main trunk which is Lewis and Sarah MYERS. The tree at this time has 447 descendants listed, of these only eight are adopted. You will notice some large branches without any additional smaller branches, the reason being that they never had children or didn't marry. On members of the family who died young I made the branch look like a stub. You can note this particularly on little Jacie's branch. Following is the breakdown of descendants to help identify the main branches of the tree:

Main Trunk	Lewis & Sarah (Ballard) MYERS
Top R.	Delphinia Jane Myers b. 1855 & Leander BRUNSON – 85 Desc.
Top L.	Leander Frazier Myers b. 1857 & Frances HICKS – 135 Desc.
2nd Top L.	Letitia Ann Myers b. 1859 & John James GUNNELL – 88 Desc.
2nd Top R.	Jason B. Myers b. 1862, d. 1863 "little Jacie" –) Desc.
3rd Top L.	Esther Viola Myers, b. 1865 & Wm. Francis McCAIN – 47 Desc.
4th Top L.	William Alson Myers b. 1869 & Ellen "Nellie" CAHILL –) Desc.
3rd Top R.	Burton Harvey Myers b. 1873 & Rosa Belle MEAD – 85 Desc.

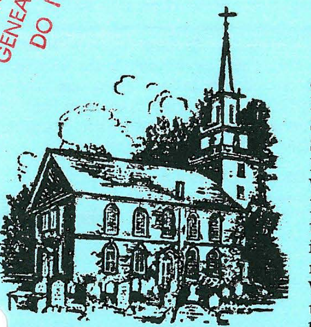
JACOB MEYERS – 1739-1827



Trinity Episcopal Church

In a quiet corner, beside an ancient brick wall of historic Trinity Episcopal Church (Old Swedes), Swedesboro, New Jersey, rests an old Soldier – veteran of the French & Indian War and of the Revolutionary War – his grave finally marked by the Daughters of the American Revolution after almost 200 years of obscurity.[1] Nearby, 'neath a large stone marker, lies famed Revolutionary War Surgeon, Dr. Bodo Otto. The two men probably were acquainted – both had endured the hardships of the Valley Forge Encampment the winter of 1777-1778.[2] The surgeon's record is well-known and documented, but his compatriot's story remains to be told below for the first time.

Jacob Myers' life, as gleaned from Pension File No. 34,416, National Archives,[3] would do justice to a plot for a novel by famed author John Jakes. He served with the Provincials at the time of British General Braddock's defeat by the Indians in 1775; and later in the taking of Fort Pitt (now Pittsburgh).[3] [4] Lt. George Washington was with Braddock, and historians tell us that the young officer learned a great deal about British tactical errors. Perhaps Jacob was not unknown to Lt. Washington. A lad of 16 when he enlisted and fought in the bloody frontier war, Jacob survived to return to Philadelphia, where he apparently prospered.

He enlisted in the Continental Army in July of 1776, serving 3 months in the "Flying Camp" prior to enlistment. He was in the memorable battles of Trenton, Princeton, Monmouth, Brandywine, Germantown, and a number of lesser engagements before going into winter quarters at Valley Forge. Twice wounded, once in the thigh and once in the arm, his surgeon (Dr. Bodo Otto perhaps??) advised him to seek a pension, but he refused as the bones were not injured. Jacob marched out of Valley Forge the Spring of 1778 with General Sullivan to fight his old adversaries, the Indians.[3] A seasoned Indian fighter, he went where he was most needed.

Military service behind him, Jacob retired to Swedesboro and became a blacksmith.

At 79 – old, infirm and nearly blind – he sought relief by applying for a Government Pension. The application was returned with the endorsement: "Inadmissible as a Deserter."

To this point Jacob's story had probably paralleled that of many others, now it was unique.

Shocked and outraged by this miscarriage of justice, Jacob's old friends and comrades, who knew the true story well, fired off a barrage of letters and depositions to Congress in his behalf. Chief among these supporters were Richard Fittermary, Judge of the Court of Common Appeals, Gloucester Co., New Jersey, and the Rev. F. Wilmer, of Swedesboro. The story can best be told by quoting, in part, these letters and documents.

Judge Fittermary wrote: "I do certify that I have been acquainted with Mr. Myers for more than 50 hears, and recollect living in the same neighborhood with him, and when the British were in Philadelphia, he being then in the Army, his family was plundered by them of property to a considerable extent. That tho' he was thrown into prison as a deserter, he was not so in fact. He enlisted for 3 years, and served over the time 4 months waiting for his pay and discharge. Captain Philip Shrawder, in revenge for his taking a petition to Congress to have their grievances redressed, detained him until his leave had expired, and then threw him into prison, under the plea of his being a deserter. He being detained thus, his fellow soldiers rose upon their delinquent officers, and on their way down to Congress for the pay, which had been withheld, were met at Trenton, and paid off. In the meantime, Jacob Myers, who had done so much to prevent bloodshed, was discharged from prison without his pay, and has ever since lived near Swedesborough in New Jersey. His character has been uniformly good in Philadelphia, where he had lived before he enlisted in the service of his adopted country, and in New Jersey, where he has since resided . . . From my long acquaintance with Mr. Myers I have always considered him as an honest, peaceable and respectable character, and I know deserving of being placed on the Pension List."[3]

Rev. F. Wilmer stated: "Mr. Myer, the applicant, is a most worthy character. After being repeatedly urged, he consented that General P. Muhlenburg should apply for him to Congress for relief. The General, who knew well all the circumstances died soon after. About 7 years since, Mr. Myer was again urged to make application. Declarations under oath confirming his own statement were regularly executed by Liet. Rabo, Henry Depperwing and Philip Leisle – These testimonials by men who served with him, for his fidelity and pacific disposition were, by the advice

the MEYER MIRROR is proud to present an update report on the

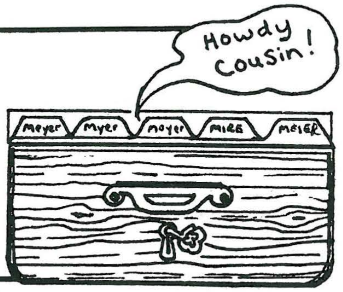
c/o Mildred Davis Myers / R.D. #4 / Moravia, NY 13118



The FILE PROJECT is getting a tremendous boost from all the ready-to-file Family Group Sheets which have been sent to Mildred Davis Myers by readers of the "MEYER MIRROR." These instant entries save many days of typing. A thousand thanks to you all for sharing! We suggest that all readers who have not yet sent in their family group sheet (which was included in our Fall 1980 issue), please fill it out and mail it to Mildred.

If you wish, you may give information on more than one generation of your family by making a family group sheet on any or all of the children, grandchildren, etc., of your earliest known ancestor, up to and including family members born about 1850.

We have set the general 1850 cut-off date in hopes of keeping the volume of entries within manageable levels. Also this would bring us up to a date when Census and other valuable records become more readily available.

Exceptions to this cut-off date would be families where the earliest known ancestor was born after 1850 or families whose ancestor immigrated to the United States after this date.

Any later family information which you have sent or plan to send will be saved and attached to the previous ancestor.

FREE files project forms are available. Send a #10 (large) SASE to:

Julie A. Hendricks / W. 628 Augusta, 1 / Spokane, WA 99205

If more than four forms are requested, attach two 15¢ stamps to your SASE. If you are unable to send for our special forms, any good printed family group sheet may be used OR entry may be prepared on 8½x11 paper, using the same general format.

All persons searching for MEYER, MYERS, MOYERS (or variations) ancestry, are welcome to join in on this project even if they do not subscribe to the MEYER MIRROR. Be sure to tell anyone who contacts you on these lines about the FILES PROJECT.

HOW DOES THE FILE PROJECT WORK?

This alphabetical file of individual data sheets is checked as each new entry goes in. Since YOUR name and address are on the sheets for YOUR ancestor, if further information about YOUR family is contained in a NEW entry, you will receive the gist of this new information plus the name and address of the party who submitted the new entry! OR other parties will be sent your address and your information if it contributes to their family line!

You may inquire at any time if you wish to know if any match for your ancestry can be found in the files. Most of the parties for whom matches have been found have already been notified. If you send an inquiry to Mildred, please remember to include an SASE.

At some future date, as the files grow, Mildred may require a small fee if she is able to find a "MATCH" for you. But at present she is so grateful to have your information to add to the expansion and growth of the files that no charge will be made.

EDITOR'S NOTE by Julie Hendricks:

The idea of this project was born long before the "MEYER MIRROR" came into being. We all have MILDRED DAVIS MYERS alone to thank for this marvelous way to collect and preserve data on MEYER(S), MYER(S), MOYER(S) families and variations thereof! Countless hours of hard work are being donated by Mildred to make this project worthwhile not for herself but for ALL persons researching these families.

To quote Mildred from a previous issue: "The alphabetical FILE seems to offer the best and most immediate hope of crossmatching inquiries with known families. This is a project I can work along at a few hours a week. In a matter of months it should be a useful file; in a matter of years, it should be a very valuable resource."

The "MEYER MIRROR" is very proud to be associated with such an unselfish and dedicated person, and thankful too, that she edits our FOUNDING FATHERS feature. We feel privileged to aid in the growth of the FILES PROJECT in any way we can.

As editor of the "MEYER MIRROR," I strongly urge you to take advantage of this great opportunity which is offered (at present) FREE OF CHARGE! Fill out your charts and mail them today! A few minutes of your time and the price of a stamp and envelope may help you advance your lineage, share it with another, or preserve it for future years. Mail charts to:

MARRS EXCHANGE NEWSLETTER:

Your "MEYER MIRROR" editor was recently contacted by Nancy Miller /2312 Rising Hill Rd. / Placerville, CA 95661. Mrs. Miller edits an excellent surname newsletter, "The MARRS EXCHANGE," which is directed towards the MARRS & MARS surname. She informed me that some of her subscribers had found their surnames spelled like several of the surnames we cover, MIRES, MARES, etc.). Mrs. Miller is interested in exchanging information between our newsletters for readers who have ound these spelling variations. Since several geographic areas mentioned y Mrs. Miller correspond to areas where our spellings are found, it may be worthwhile to some of our readers to check into the "MARRS EXCHANGE." I found the issues of the "MARRS EXCHANGE" very interesting and gladly traded back issues of our "MEYER MIRROR." Mrs. Miller has reason to take pride in her newsletter. I found her most helpful and congenial and urge our readers who have encountered the MARRS/MARS spellings to contact her!

HEIRLOOM LOCATED:

One of our readers, Mr. Dave Perkins of Sunnyvale, CA, recently received a letter from Mrs. Granville Martin / 1203 W. Bedford St. / Dimmitt, TX 79027. Quoted below:

"Dear Sir,

While in an antique store I found an old marriage license of Ellen Jane MYERS of York Co., PA & John W. WAREHIME of Carrol Co., MD. married March 1891. The price on it was $50.00, if you know who it might belong to. Their pictures are also in the license in the original frame / in perfect condition.

Oh how I wish I could find my Great Grandparents hanging on a wall somewhere! Someone, somewhere would surely bless the day they find this precious paper. If you know of anyone it might belong to please let me know."

Anyone interested? Please contact Mrs. Martin. Thank you Dave & Mrs. Martin!

of Gov. Stratton (since deceased), Judge Fittermary and myself, put into the hands of Wm. Krufty, at that time a member of Congress, to accompany a Petition to Congress in his behalf. The business was neglected, the parties are all dead, and the papers which cannot be found it will be impossible to replace. So much is he respected that he is kept out of the poor house by the contributions of a few persons, and if any one is entitled to assistance, he has a good claim." . . . [3] Rev. Wilmer's letter was accompanied by signatures of scores of neighbors, all attesting to Jacob Myers' character and worthiness, and recommending him to Congress.[3]

Our story has a happy ending. The re-submitted pension application was "Admitted. (The explanation as to his supposed desertion being satisfactory."[3] The pension began January 21, 1819. He died January 10, 1827; his widow, Margaret, died on July 25, 1830.

Names and birthdates of children of Jacob and Margaret: Frederick, born Feb. 6, 1781, died Sept. 20, 1851; Maria, born Dec. 4, 1789; David, born Sept. 7, 1794, died May 10, 1800, Elizabeth, born May 19, 1797; Hannah, born October 29, 1800; Sarah, born 1803 (according to Pension Applica.); and George, born May 1805 (according to Pension Applica.). The five first mentioned are recorded in the records of Trinity Episcopal Church (then Old Swedes Church), Swedesborough, NJ.

That Jacob Myers loved and served his adopted homeland cannot be doubted. He must have been a brave and intrepid man – lover of liberty – to have come to a new world at a tender age, fought savages, and then in middle age risked (and lost) all he had acquired, in order to take up the cause of the young, struggling country. Strong and steadfast even the rigors of Valley Forge did not affect his dauntless spirit. It is a privilege to count Jacob Myers among those who have borne our name in its various forms thru the years.

YOUNG ERI MEYER

The letters of a Union Soldier – Sent to us by Mr. Patrick O. Bowman / Box 152 / Mount Gretna, PA 17064

(Henry Meyer, Eri's oldest brother, drowned during the great canal flood which took place in Lebanon County, PA on June 5, 1862.)

Letter No. 2

From Eri to Brother Samuel

"Camp Douglas
June 15, 1862

Dear Brother:

I am in receipt of your berieving letter this morning (Sunday) and am greatly berieved at the news of Henry and could not believe if I would not see it, staring me in the face.

I am so greatly grieved at the sad news, that I know not what to say under the circumstances on the occasion.

I am so much affected that I am almost fainting while writing but as we cannot changed, hold the arm of Him, let us console ourselves as best we can and think that however strange and timely his grieved death to us may appear yet whatever He does is just.

I will try to go to the city tomorrow and then will perhaps write to some of you, for today, I am unable to write even my own thoughts and ideas.

I have a letter from Ezra, Nancy and father the same minute yours. To one I never again can write and to Ezra on account of locality, to father I have not written for some time but give him the contents of this letter and then I hope he will not find fault with me as camp life is a bad life to write letters.

If you write to Ezra please tell him I am well and all his things left in my care protected and will be sent according to his directions at any time, to any place but if he chooses to leave them where they are, they are safe, as long as I am here and then I can take care of them myself.

Tell John, Rudolph, Veronica to write me all separate letters on the sad occasion of the death of Henry and I will answer them separately.

Your letter has arrived as stated and am pleased for your kindness and intend to rectify it as soon as we receive pay. You ask me about pay which we know not fully ourselves.

We are promised $13 a month, $10 bounty (from the city) and 160 acres of land protected by the Homestead Law. But hre $13 a month we will get certain, how much of the rest I know not. We are well cared for, all our clothing sound and good rations. This dinner we had strawberries. If I had not enlisted it would have cost me at least for board and wash and clothing. 15

Present or at least counting 10
25
I remain your bereived 50

Sincere Bro.
Eri Meyer

To S. Meyer

Please write soon. Tell my brothers to do the same and state incidents. Ezra is with K. Meyers sons and well.

Eri Meyer

I enjoy good health."

(For a reason that was not explained to his family back in Pennsylvania, Eri was discharged from the Army.)

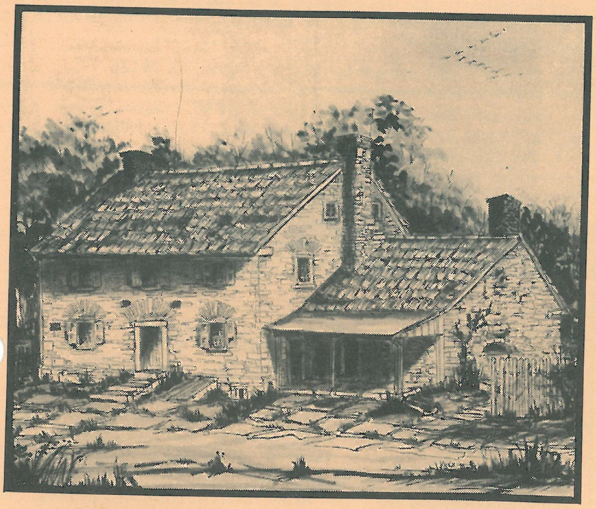
The Isaac Meier House

By: Viola Kohl Mohn / Meier Homestead Restoration / P. O. Box 144 / Myerstown, PA 17067



Isaac Meier House – illustration by Viola Kohl Mohn

Isaac Meier, founder of the town of Myerstown, Pennsylvania, was a prominent man in the Tulpehocken Valley during the time he lived there (1757 until he was murdered at age 40 in 1770). His name appears in many documents and papers of the day, always designated as "Gentleman."

He was well known in Colonial times. A proclamation was issued at the time of his death, by John Penn, then Governor of Pennsylvania, offering one hundred pounds for the apprehension of his murderer or murderers. However, Meier's background remains an enigma.

That he was a wealthy man can be determined by his life style, numerous plantations, possessions and the well connected marriages which his children made, as well as by the inventory made of his estate when he died.

Isaac Meier married Catherine Herclerode in Host Reformed Church, 10 June 1752. When Meier was newly married, he and his wife, Catherine, lived in "Conestoga," the name then used for parts of Lancaster County and of an area traversed by the Conestoga Creek from whence came the name of the Conestoga wagon, made famous in the great westward trek to come many years later.

Proof for this is in the records of the Tulpehocken Reformed Church where Catherine witnessed the baptism of her sister's child, John Henry Fortune (Fortine). Following the name of the sponsor, Catherine Meier, was the phrase: "wife of Isaac Meier of Conestoga."

Catherine was the daughter of Valentine Herclerode who came to the Tulpehocken area in 1738 and bought 249 acres of land from Caspar istar, button maker, glass manufacturer and land speculator of Philadelphia. The land was part of a 10,000 acre tract along the Tulpehocken Creek and was bought by Wistar in 1735 from William Penn. The tract was heavily wooded, a rich Indian hunting ground and situated on the Indian trail along the creek that ran from Peshtank (Paxtang today) to Philadelphia. This area was frontier at that time, the great hinterland lying to the North of Lancaster Town, in Lancaster County. The adventurous pushed into the great wilderness that lay between what today is called South Mountain, known then as the Flying Hills, and the ridge that is today the Blue Mountain.

Valentine's land grant is dated December 4/5, 1738. He built first a log house. Remains of the fireplace of this cabin were found under the flooring of the present house, between the two Western rooms, during archeaological digs conducted by the Restoration Committee. Around 1740 Herclerode began to build a two-story limestone house for his family of six children. The handsome German-type wrought iron handware in the ancient fish form still remains on some doors.

When Herclerode and his neighbors experienced the vicious Indian attacks circa 1750, his new stone house was used as a place of refuge and later became locally known as "the Old Fort." At least 300 settlers were killed in the Tulpehocken area during the French and Indian wars.

An interesting account is told in the Pennsylvania Archives, quoted here:

Extract of a letter dated "Heidelberg, July 1, 1757"

"Yesterday, about three of the clock, in the afternoon, between Valentine Hercheload's, and Tobias Bickell's, four Indians killed two children, one about four years old, the other five; they at the same time scalped a young woman of about sixteen; but, with proper care she is like to live and do well.

"A woman was terribly cut with the tomahawk, but not scalped – her life is despaired of. Three children were carried off prisoners. One Christian Schrenk's wife, being among the rest, bravely defended herself and children for a while; wresting the gun out of the Indian's hands, who assaulted her, also his tomahawk, and threw them away; and afterwards was obliged to save her own life – two of her children were taken captives in the mean time. In this house were also twenty women and children, who had fled from their own habitations, to take shelter; the men belonging to them were about one half mile off, picking cherries – they came as quick as possible and went in pursuit of the Indians, but to no purpose, the Indians had concealed themselves."

Because of difficulties incurred, Herclerode mortgaged his house in 1755 to Caspar Wistar for 425 £. When Wistar died about a year later his heirs pushed Herclerode for the principal and interest. Herclerode, not able to pay due to other litigations and the extenuating times, was sheriffed. Frederick Yeiser, butcher of Lancaster town, bought the property and shortly after this, Isaac Meier, Valentine's son-in-law, bought the plantation. It is noted on this transaction that Valentine died around the same time (1757-1758).

After Meier purchased the Herclerode house he begain a series of additions to the stone Germanic structure. The original house consisted of four large rooms, two upstairs and two below, built in typical Germanic style with half-timbered facade.

Meier built an addition to the West side consisting of two large rooms and a wide hall connecting the addition to the original half-timbered face of the house. The hall, running North and South, leads to a handsome wide staircase with hand-turned spindles mounting to the third floor. The two front rooms have corner fireplaces and the Southwest (blue room) has a corner cupboard with lovely butterfly shelves. This part of the house is Georgian in design and decor, with H and L hinges and the massive six panelled doors. It seems to have been the earliest Georgianized house in the area.

A one and one-half story wing was built by Meier to the eastern side of the main house's 20'x20' containing two huge fireplaces on the east and

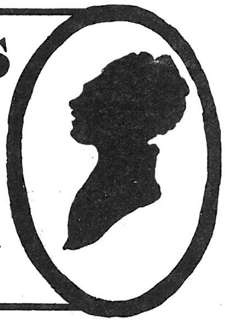
Mini Biographies of the Isaac Meier Family

By: VIOLA KOHL MOHN

Illustrations from original silhouettes of Isaac Meier and wife, Catherine (Herclerode).

All material graciously contributed by Viola Kohl Mohn. (See cover story).



ISAAC MEIER

Isaac Meier was born January 1, 1730, married June 10, 1752 Host, PA (in the Host Reformed Church Records), married by Rev. Henry William Stoy who was also a medical doctor. Meier: buried Tulpehocken Reformed Church Cemetery near Stouchsburg, PA. Gravestone flat Moravian fashion of red sandstone inscribed in German.

FAMILY BACKGROUNG – CATHERINE (HERCLERODE) MEIER

Valentine Herclerode was one of the sons of Lorentz Herclerode coming from an area to the south known as Cocalico lying near Schaefferstown, PA. He was already married when he appeared in the Tulpehocken Valley and his daughter Catherine was about seven years old. His wife's name was Anna Maria and both her name and his appear on the Tulpehocken Reformed Church register as two of the founders of this church in 1745. That he was literate we know from his signature on deeds, wills, and on an old letter to the Utrecht Church in Holland, asking for a minister for their American Mission in Tulpehocken. He was naturalized in 1738 so we know that he was not born in America.

ELIZABETH MEIER REILLY

Elizabeth born in 1755, married Captain John Reily, Philadelphia lawyer in the St. James Episcopal Church in Lancaster City, June 20, 1773. Capt. Reily was the son of Benjamin and Mary Scull Reily of Philadelphia. He was born in Leeds, England but his parents came to America soon after his birth. He was licensed to practice law in four counties, Lancaster, Chester, Dauphin and Lebanon. He was a Revolutionary Officer and was severely wounded at Bonhamton, NJ, April 15, 1777. His wife sent blankets, medicine, food and clothing to the men at Valley Forge in the terrible winter of that year. The couple lived in Myerstown and their log house is mentioned on the first assessment list of the new country in 1797. Capt. John and Elizabeth Meier Reily are buried in the old Tulpehocken Cemetery of the Reformed Church next to her father, Isaac Meier.

ANNA MARIA MEIER HIESTER

Anna Maria, second daughter of Isaac Meier, was born in 1758. She was married in the "Blue Room" in the Meier mansion to William Hiester, son of Revolutionary General Daniel Hiester of Reading, PA. His uncle, Colonel Joseph Hiester, was Governor of Pennsylvania. A quotation from the Hiester Diary reads: "Married, March 18, 1784, at High Noon in the Blue Room of the Meier mansion to William Hiester, son of Col. Daniel Hiester ..." written by William himself in the first person naming his mother-in-law and the rest of the Meier family and his own family members that were present.

ANNA MEIER REIGART

Not too much is known of what became of Anna born in 1759, but she married Jacob Reigart, Esq. His name appears with Capt. John Reily, Esq. on the transactions of the estate of their wives' mother, so perhaps we can assume that he too was a lawyer. There are prominent Reigarts in the Valley and in Lancaster, but to date Jacob has not been connected to them. Some Reigarts changed their name to the anglicised version "Richard." The Richards are inter-married with the Muhlenbergs and Conrad Weiser, famous Indian Agent of the Colonial Government who must have been known to the Meier family. These families in turn married into the Meier family as did Richards and their descendants. This could be the key!

JOHN "Hans" MEIER / MYERS

Isaac Meier's only son John was born in 1764. He married Catharine Hahn, daughter of Capt. Philip Han, Revolutionary Officer of Falkner's Swamp. John Meier also served in the Revolutionary War, and he was in the Pennsylvania Legislature. He lived in the family mansion in what is now being called Myerstown. He changed his name later to the spelling John Myer from the German version, Johann Meier, his baptismal name. His nickname was "Hans" which he signed on the assessment list when he was six years old.

John Myers is buried at the Tulpehocken Cemetery with his wife. John's sons, John, Jr. and Daniel, operated an Iron Foundry in Myerstown. They were also founders of the Myerstown Academy. His son, Isaac, fought in the war of 1812 and held the rank of Major in the PA Militia. Daniel and his descendants migrated to Shelby, Ohio, and Shelby County, Illinois. John Myer, Jr.'s son, James, went to Lancaster County and founded Donegal Furnace. His mansion "Norwood" still stands in the town of Columbia, PA.

MARIA CATHARINE MEIER WOOD

The letters of a Union Soldier — Sent to us by Mr. Patrick O. Bowman / Box 152 / Mount Gretna, PA 17064

(For a reason that was not explained to his family back in Pennsylvania. Eri was discharged from the Army.)

Letter No. 3

From Eri to Brother Samuel

"Chicago, Sept. 29, 1862

S. Meyer Esq.
Dear Brother

We were mustered out last Saturday night. It was nearly dark before I reached the City. This morning I exchanged my clothes and am once more a citizen.

The 8,000 paroled prisoners from Harper's Ferry who were to report here have nearly all arrived and will be armed and sent against the Indians under Pope. The city is lively, employment plentiful but wages low.

I expect to stay at least till next spring.

Illinois is almost unanimous in favor of the Presidents Proclamation only a few ballandighammers who oppose any just order; the Rep (or abolitionists as they all are here) and Douglas Democrats join hand in hand to support the Pres. Saturday night I heard stronger abolition speeches made by Democrats than I ever before did of Abolitionists.

Chicago is a stronger abolition place than I ever met.

I think it an honor to be an Abolitionist but a Northern Traitor bring horror to the ear.

I am well.

The weather fine, fruit plenty.

I am in such a hurry that I know not what to write but wish I could relate things to you for almost a day. I could give you a lot of news that I have seen, heard and learned since I left you in your quiet home March 31, last.

Write soon again and I will do you more justice in answering it.

Give my best respects to all our friends.

Ezra has time to write, tell him.

Let me hear from you all soon,

Adieu
Eri Meyer
Chicago, Illinois

Enclosed $10

I would not have written but want to send you the portrait of old Abe. Excuse for not sending sooner. Excuse blots, errors, mistakes.

Forget not to tell Katie's family that I am all O.K."

Eri was again preparing to join the Army west walls. The western firplace contains a cooking arrangement similar in style to those found in the Ephrata Cloisters and Black Forest for slow cooking. An opening above is a feeder to a red earthen ornamental tile stove that stood in the southeast room of the main building, a drying rack suspended from the ceiling above. The eastern kitchen fireplace has an opening to a large outside squirrel tail oven and a pot still attached to the southern end.

There were rooms over the kitchen and third floor of the house for the family's female mulatto and negro slaves. Quarters for the men were over Meier's distillery along the creek to the west. Numerous additional structures surrounded the house: brewery, windmill, blacksmith shop, smoke house and, of course, the large Pennsylvania bank barn.

The roof of the house and kitchen ell were covered with handmade clay beavertail tiles, European fashion. Many of the tiles were found in the "digs," including miniatures which once covered the outside oven. A great many Germanic houses in the Tulpehocken area had tile roofs, some remaining today.

From the archaelogical digs of three years' duration much was discovered of Meier family way of life in addition to the structure of the house and fabric details.

Further details were provided in an inventory prepared by "Baron" William Henry Stiegel. Originally from Cologne, Germany, Stiegel was a famous glassmaker and ironmaster of Manheim, PA and a friend of the Meier family. He listed room by room the furnishings of the manor and prepared a detailed list of the financial dealings of Isaac Meier.

The family had silver cutlery, English procelain, handsome fire tongs and backs, Steigel glassware, good pictures on the walls, the clock, tea table, and many chairs and a large mirror were listed as in the Blue Room. A sizeable book collection was among his personal possessions, as were a brace of pistols, gun, silk stocks, many linen and silk shirts, knee breeches, coats of "sarduth" and silver buckles on his shoes. He had a good watch, a handsome saddle for his stallion, quite a sizeable stable and much live stock with some of it on three other plantations run by tenants. His bed had linen curtains as did his bedroom windows. His clay pipes, some of them initialed, were found in the digs, as well as pewter and brass articles as mentioned in the kitchen inventory. The brass knocker of the front door was found and a coin with a date 175-, of King George II of England, was discovered embedded between two stones in the side of the door with the initials I.M. on one stone.

Meier was banker of the area and as such was called out to a local tavern of one Henry Buck on 14 July 1770. Meier, seated with his back to the window, was shot in the neck by an unknown assailant or assailants. He was carried to his home where he died the following day.

Meier left a widow and six children. It took 13 years to settle his estate. In the meanwhile his widow, Catherine, undertook the educations of her children and the management of the large estate. All the children gew up to lead prominent and outstanding lives, marrying quite well into prominent Colonial families. (For details of these marriages see the FOUNDING FATHERS page.)

The original Herclerode/Meier house still stands in Myerstown. It is being restored by a Committee of local citizens as part of the Historic Preservation Trust of Lebanon County.

Three years of archaeological digging and study preceded the restoration. Under the direction and dedicated work of Thomas E. Jones, Restoration Consultant, the house is being painstakingly restored with authentic detail.

Plaster, paint, stone, wood, iron hardware, and all other material is analysed and then made or replaced in the old way with the original formula. Restoration is slow but a cultural resource of this character cannot be hurried. This important historic landmark is on the National Register of Historic Sites. The Isaac Meier House is an outstanding example of the cultural changes that took place in the Germanic Community just before and immediately after the Revolutionary War as the Germa peoples adapted to the Georgian style of their English contemporaries.

The Restoration Committee would like to hear from any descendants of this family. Write to Mrs. Harold Mohn, Box 144, Myerstown, PA 17067. Genealogical material can be obtained concerning your line.

The Lore of Yesteryear

CHARLES M. MYERS (1807-1864)

Charles M. Myers was born 23 May 1807 in Ohio. He was of German descent. He came to Wayne County, Indiana from Ohio about 1830. There he met and married Isabella McGrew on 22 Dec. 1831. Immediately they removed to Delaware Township, Hamilton County, Indiana, and bought 40 acres of land. Their nearest neighbor lived 1½ miles away. There they remained the rest of their lives.

Charles was a weaver by trade and followed that occupation along with farming. It is also said of Charles that he was a tanner of sorts. Folklore tells of the tanning vats that Charles had, that he was rather eccentric and sold to both Noblesville Boot Shop and Carmel, but only as he willed. It is claimed that he set the pattern for the first pair of boots ever made in Carmel, Indiana.

Charles' original trade was weaver. As those were days long before great manufacturing plants had been thought of, he made a good living for his family. Two coverlets that Charles wove and finished in 1849 are still in the hands of his descendants. They testify to his expert workmanship. The coverlet pictured is blue and white with the year 1849 woven into one corner, which means the year it was finished. A history of the coverlet follows:

Charles M. Myers had this coverlet from 1849 until his death in 1864. At his death he gave it to his one son, Allen Myers. Allen had the coverlet from 1864 to 1922, when he died. In fact it was on his bed when he died. Allen Myers left the coverlet to his granddaughter, Mabel Taca Myers, daughter of his oldest son, Elmer Linley Myers. Mabel Taca Myers had the coverlet from 1922 until her death, 10 Feb. 1979, at the age of 92 years. The coverlet is now in possession of the author as Mabel's sister, Lois Myers Thomas, fulfilled Mabel's request that he get the coverlet after she died. The other coverlet woven by Charles is now in the hands of Lois Myers Thomas, so the heirloom coverlets have been passed down to descendants of the two sons of Charles Myers.

Isabella McGrew, wife of Charles M. Myers was born in Montgomery County, Ohio on 19 Oct. 1811, daughter of William and Charlotte (Chevalier) McGrew. Isabella died 10 Oct. 1858 inside the White Chapel Church near Carmel, Indiana. She had risen up in the Church to testify to God and lead in singing the hymn, "How Happy Are They Who Their Savior Obey." When she sat down at the close of the hymn, she slumped over dead in her seat. An account of her unusual demise is given in a Historical Sketch of White Chapel M.E. Church by Frank Williamson dated 1928. Isabella was buried at the cemetery near her beloved Church.

The loss of Isabella left Charles to be both Father and Mother to his children. It was difficult enough to raise a family in those days, let alone with one parent missing. At the time the family consisted of Charles and 5 daughters: Charlotte, Melissa, Mary, Amanda and Nancy Ellen.

Charles met Rachel Fisher and married her 13 Sept. 1860 in Marion County, Indiana. It was a May-December romance as Rachel was but 20 years of age, but love will have it's way. They had been married for 4 years when Charles died, 22 Sept. 1864. He was laid to rest beside his first wife, Isabella, at the White Chapel Cemetery.

LEWIS MYERS (1832-1901)

Lewis Myers, first child of Charles and Isabella, was born 30 Sept. 1832 in Hamilton County, Indiana.

Lewis married Sarah Luzena Ballard 11 Feb. 1855. Sarah was a daughter of James and Esther (Frazier) Ballard. She was born in Guilford County, North Carolina 19 Mar. 1834. Her father was outspoken against slavery and was persecuted by the stand he took. He and his family migrated first to Preble County, Ohio about 1851 then came to Indiana ca. 1852, by covered wagon, and located in Hamilton County. It was there that Lewis and Sarah met and were married.

Lewis Myers was an honest man and thought that everyone else was, as the following story shows:

Lewis had a white driving horse named Billy, which was blind in the daytime but stepped high and was a good ride. One day a transient horse trader came through the County, stopping overnight to camp at the Churchyard. Lewis traded Billy to him for a bay horse with good eyes. The trader promised the horse was sound, then he moved on. Lewis had also given him some money in the deal. When Lewis hitched up the bay and had

Two Great Books!

Myers Family

by James C. Myers and Paul Myers

Price – $25.00 plus $2.00 postage & handling

Congratulations to James C. Myers and Paul R. Myers on the completion of their book. This volume measures 14x8½ inches and contains about 200 pages. It is soft covered and metal clipped at the left margin, notebook style so that pages may be added, as the authors plan to furnish future genealogical findings to all purchasers of the book! The book contains valuable text and data beginning with Jacob MOYER, MYERS who d. 1795 in Botetourt Co., VA and continues mainly through his son, John, in many cases, tracing the lineages up to present day descendants. Text is complemented by numerous photographs, maps and beautiful examples of the records so dear to the heart of every geneologist. In addition to the MYERS line, several related families are covered at length and the book is punctuated throughout by colorful bits of local history. This book is an accomplishment that its authors have every reason to be proud of! If further details are desired please contact;

James C. Myers / Box 972 / Gallipolis, OH 45631

Mr. Charles W. MYERS writes: Have computer printout of descendants of our Josiah MYERS - 1747 Holland; descendants down to my Grandfather & his brothers. Would be glad to answer queries on these. (See Meyer Mirror cover – Fall 1980).

of the Meyers and Sparhawk Families

This fascinating volume by Dorothy H. Braithwait measures 8½x11 inches, contains 256 pages, is fully indexed and has deluxe hard binding. The price is $15.00 plus $1.49 postage and handling.

The book covers Meyers and Sparhawk families and related lines. Localities mentioned range from Bavaria, Germany – Dakota Territory – Alberta, Canada – Oregon.

Pioneer histories and other family tales are recounted in a fresh narrative style which makes the volume an intriguing reading experience even for those who are not related to these particular lines!

The final chapter outlines the family lineages on ancestor charts and family group sheets, (Meyers 1818-1900), and extensive lines relating to the Sparhawk family. Blank charts are provided for individual family information.

A perfect finishing touch to this volume is the complete index. Thi book of excellent quality and appearance is an admirable achievement by Dorothy Brathwait.

YOUNG ERI MEYER

The letters of a Union Soldier – Sent to us by Mr. Patrick O. Bowman / Box 152 / Mount Gretna, PA 17064

Letter No. 4

From Eri to Brother Samuel "Chicago, Oct. 10, 1862

Dear Brother

Having received no letter from your parts for some time, and being desirous of hearing from you I address this note.

Have you received a letter from me about the 30th last month containing a $10 Treas. note, if you have or not let me hear about the matter and have it rectified. Mr. Jno. Uhler arrived here last Saturday, and was greatly pleased as well as surprised to see him. He had several chances to enter business but has not yet decided upon any. Times are pretty good now but after the close of navigation (which is about the last of this month) they will be very dull till about or very near April.

I had a chance as bookkeeper and Salesman combined in a clothing store in Lake Street but refused as I have what I call a better position.

I am recruiting for Cavalry ever since the 2nd. Recruiting is slow but we are sure of speedily getting up a company. I will not go as Private but is not my business to designate now what position I hold but will let you know as soon as officers are elected. The commissioned company officers are Sharp & Maurer of the old Company and as there are only 3 the majority is no doubt upon my side.

As it is not my policy to count the chickens before they are hatched I clase this scribbling letter.

Remaining

Dear Bro. Resp.
Eri Meyer
Chicago, Ill.

P.S. Direct Chicago, Ill. In care of Lieu Wm. Sharp as I may be in Springfield, Peoria or Chicago and he will forward it wherever I am.

To Samuel Meyer
Annville, Penna.

What brought Uhler out here. I can't find out the cause. I suspect he denies my respects to all and when we go to camp I sent all unnecessary things home by Amer. Exp. Co. but will let you hear from before.

Tr'y your Bro. Eri"

gone only a short distance, he realized that the horse was so heavy that he could hardly move, but the trader was long gone and it was too late to ask for a refund. Sarah said to Lewis, "Pop, you sure got a good skinning on your horse trade." Lewis replied, "How could they do that, why they camped in the CHURCH YARD last night and they told me he was sound!" Kind Lewis never worked his horses on Sunday as he claimed they needed one day of rest just like a man!

Lewis was a farmer most of his life, but in the latter years he ran a toll gate. The Toll Gate House and pole to stop the horse and buggy in order to collect the toll, were located on State Road 29 at the very north end of Wheeling. At the time, Deer Creek, which is about 4 miles farther north on 29, was called "Henpeck." The Toll Gate was started around 1895 and closed in late 1900. Lewis Myers was the last Toll Gate Keeper.

Lewis and Sarah lived in the Gate House. Ruth (McCain) Dunkin, a granddaughter of theirs, remembers going to visit her grandparents when they lived in the little house and collected the tolls. She could remember the wooden box they had which as partitioned off for the different coins; quarters, dimes, nickles and pennies, so they could make change if need be. She couldn't be sure, but thought the toll was 2¢ per mile.

Lewis loved to tell how people would scheme to try to avoid paying the toll. He related how one man would tie his horse at Bob Kirk's hitching post, located across the road, then walk into Wheeling to the store so he wouldn't have to pay the toll for his horse and wagon.

Another man claimed he was going only a little ways to see one of Lewis' neighbors, so only paid a few cents toll. Later Lewis checked with the neighbor, but he had never heard of the man!

When the Toll Gate was closed for the last time, they relocated the old Toll Gate House near Young America Road (now Road 18). It was then used as a hog house for many years.

Lewis Myers died 14 April, 1901 in Carrollton Twp., Carroll County, Indiana of pneumonia. At the time of his death he was residing with his son, Burton, on the Taylor-McCloskey farm near Deer Creek. He was buried at the Rock Creek Cemetery between Logansport and Deer Creek. Sarah Myers died 31 Aug. 1917 at Carrollton, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will McCain. Sarah was laid to rest beside Lewis in the Rock Creek Cemetery.

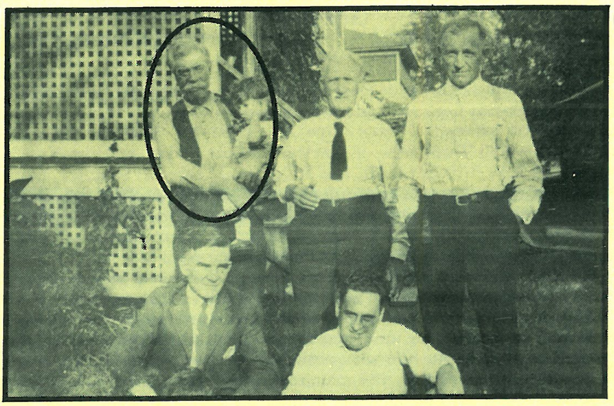
A Real Mystery !

IS THIS MAN RELATED TO YOUR FAMILY?



Circled-John Marion Myers holding his Grandson.
Standing next: William E. Corn, Asa Vaughn
Sitting: William Harvey Myers and Jerry Rubin.

Mr. William H. Myers writes of his family:

Grandfather, Marion MYERS, lived in or near Benton Co., MO in the 1860's. Marion was married ca. 1864-5 and killed that same year by bushwhackers in Southern MO, near the end of the Civil War. His widowed bride was Malinda (TUCKER), who gave birth to their only child, John Marion MYERS in Sept. 1865, probably shortly after the death of MARION.

Malinda (who had been b. Mar. 1847 in Benton Co., MO) remarried in Sept. 1868 to Mr. William E. CORN.

The tragedy of Marion MYERS is deepend by the fact that his present-day descendants have no clue to his ancestry. All readers with MYERS who lived in or near Benton Co., MO, prior to 1865 are urged to contact:

News of a gold strike in Dakota Territory reached Scribner, Nebraska and the gold fever struck the two sons of Wilheim Frederick Meyer and his wife Margretha Newschilt. Four or five years of fighting a losing battle against grasshoppers and drought was little incentive to keep the boys, William and Henry, from heading for the Black Hills. They owned a team of oxen and a sturdy wagon which they loaded with potatoes and arrived in the hills to find the miners so hungry they ate the potates like they were apples fresh off a tree. Noting a profit was to be made in the freighting business they made several trips into the hills in the year of 1876.

Wilheim and Margretha, along with a forty wagon caravan left the Elkhorn Valley for Dakota Territory on the 2nd of March, 1877. They arrived in Deadwood City on the 10th of May 1877.

The Meyer brothers prospected for gold and located several claims where a mining camp was started which became known as Meyersville. It is nothing but a few ghosts of buildings in Pennington County today. A paying vein was finally located and worked. During their first year as miners, the brothers were handicapped by a lack of equipment to carry on the operations of the mine. To raise the much needed funds they went out buffalo hunting. With the money from the hides they were able to buy a stamp mill and install it. The mine was named the Gold Safe Lode and drew the attention of a St. Louis syndicate to whom it was sold for $35,000 a few years later.

William and Henry and their brother-in-law, William Preller, went to the buffalo hunting grounds of eastern Montana. After a time they were able to load up many hides for a trip back to civilization to be sold. Henry was left behind to guard the camp site.

At the time Henry was about seventeen or eighteen and was a spunky young fellow who went out alone to shoot more buffalo. One day Henry returned to camp to find a visitor rummaging through his sack of flour.

The camp robber was a "wolfer," one who made his living by killing wolves for the bounty paid by the government. His method was to follow the buffalo hunters, taking the meat they had discarded when they took the hides. He then poisoned the meat and placed it in an area where the wolves were bound to come.

This wolfer had put his poison in the Meyer's remaining flour and was busy coating his meat with it when Henry walked into camp. The fight that followed terminated in Henry feeling lucky to escape with his life.

With the wolfer in possession of his camp and supplies, Henry was at the mercy of the elements on the wild, open plains. He was forced to find his own way in the wilderness. Henry was discovered by a party of friendly Indians and taken into their camp where he lived for six to eight weeks. These Indians remained friends with Henry for a long time for they later visited him and his family when they lived on the Cheyenne River in Custer County.

The U.S. Army was instrumental in returning young Henry to his family, but sometime later, in the mining town of Deadwood, Henry was clerking in a store when this same wolfer came in. Recognition resulted in a gun battle in which Henry was the victor and the wolfer was dead.

With his share of the profit from the sale of the gold mine, Henry purchased a great herd of cattle. They were branded and turned out to graze on the vast Dakota prairie.

One day Henry went to visit his sister and her family in Rapid City. It Cunningham's search of the original records, which clearly disproves some printed "facts", also points out that early baptismal parents of Lower Bermusian Church: Johannes & Margareth Meyer (the elders), Frederick & Anna Barbara Meyer, Nicholas & Anna Margareth Meyer, & Susanna Meyerin (sister?), stood sponsors for each other's children, & doubtless were somehow related.

On passenger list for ship AURORA from Rotterdam, arriving Philadelphia 8 Oct. 1744 : Nicklas Meyer, Matteas Meyer, Johan Adam Meyer & Matteas Meyer Jr.

Col. Cunningham theorizes possibly Matteas Meyer, father, had sons Matteas Jr., Nicklas & Johan Adam as males over 16; Susanna, a daughter, and John & Frederick, unregistered sons under 16. Can anyone shed light on this puzzle?

We are greatly indebted to the following from whose voluminois records the preceeding composition was taken:

Arthur S. Cunningham, Col. USAF (Ret.)

for search of original records and his 5-page reappraisal of the "Facts".

CEMETERY RECORDS

YANKTON COUNTY, SOUTH DAKOTA, BURIALS

Yankton is called the "Mother City" of the Dakotas. First permanent white settlers came in the summer of 1859. It became capitol of Dalota Territory in 1861, the city of Yankton was chartered in 1869

Records of the first burials are lost, over 400 in the Yankton Cemetery alone are unknown. In the late 1930's the WPA Graves Registration Project surveyed the county cemeteries and found and listed 61. Private burial grounds may not have been found. Following is an extract of MAYER, MEIR, MEYER, MYERS, MYHRE burials. The original lists are at the Historiacal Resource Center, Memorial Building, Pierre, SD 57501. YOUNG ERI MEYER

The letters of a Union Soldier – Sent to us by Mr. Patrick O. Bowman / Box 152 / Mount Gretna, PA 17064

Letter No. 5

From Eri to Brother Samuel "Camp Peooria Nov. 18, 1862

Dear Brother Samuel:

Gliding from the regular and tedious routine of duty I take leave this rainy afternoon to drop you a few lines, hardly able to give any news of any consequence.

Illinois furnished so many troops that workmen are extremely scarce and wages high; a common laborer demands 20 shillings per day, and very much corn remains on the stalk for want of hands to husk it, and the consequence is that recruiting is slowly and many have to consolidate yet before the Regiment is mustered and ours will be among them no doubt. I have been left in charge of a squad of men 27 altogether and have been in camp every since.

Mr. John Uhler is yet in the employ of the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company as I learn from a letter received this morning.

I am glad of the success of the Messers J. R. Henry & S. Boltz to the appointment of the command of Capt. and 1st Lieu, Respectfully, and Mr. Boltz without doubt prove himself worthy the command.

When, by Ezra's letters, I learned that Mess. Burnside, Stein & Allwein have found substitutes instead of going themselves it only impressed more firmly upon my mind who are traitors and who to their government are loyal.

There are several regiments here which no doubt will sooner or later consolidate and push into Kentucky or Alabama but our Col. will be the Col. of the Reg., is so, as he has satisfactory assurances from Gov. Yates.

Our Col., Col. Hancock of the Reg. Army is as good a man as you or anybody else may find.

I am enjoying good health and weigh nearly 165 pounds which is about 10 more than when I left Pa.

Lieu. Col. Headly and Adjutant McIlwaine are both Pa. Dutchmen like ourselves.

I told you I know not what to write in the beginning and have not deceived.

Give my respects to all my friends and I remain your brother and their friends, ever.

P.S. Let especially my sisters know how I am getting along. In haste to them Good bye CWB Write soon dear brother and let others follow your example. Let father find out how I am and how he is. Does he still live in town (confidential)"

Eri Meyer
15th Cavalry Camp Peoria, Ill.

was there he met their housemaid, Barbara Muhlberger, a twenty-two year old immigrant from Germany. It was love at first sight and they were married within three weeks. Their marriage took place on the 15th of September, 1889, about two months before South Dakota was admitted to the Union.

Henry rented a farm at Box Elder, east of Rapid City, and took his bride there to live. He discovered his investment from his share of the gold mine, 100 head of cattle, had been stolen and he was left with only the horses. Three children were born to the couple at Box Elder.

Henry and Barbara moved to Sage Creek and soon had two more children. In 1896 they bought a place on the Cheyenne River south of where Spring Creek flows into it. They lived there until 1912 and had a total of 13 children.

Henry gathered together a nice flock of sheep. His children took turns herding them. Then the neighbors put their sheep in with the Meyer's flock for the herders to watch over.

One day Emma and Hugo, Henry's children, were watching about sixty head of sheep down by the Cheyenne River. They began playing in the soft sand along the cut bank of the river. They were digging tunnels in the bank when Emma backed out of her tunnel and cried, "Hugo, Hugo, there's dirt falling down in my tunnel. You better get out."

Just then his tunnel caved in and all but his feet was buried in tons of sand. Emma tried digging him out with her bare hands until they were bruised and bleeding. Then she used her lunch pail, but the sand was falling as fast as she could dig. When she could dig no longer, she ran the mile home to tell her mother.

Barbara, the mother, calmly hitched the team to the wagon and with the aid of a neighbor went and dug the body out. They took him home and laid him across the family's two chairs under a blanket covering.

When Henry returned from the far field and saw what had happened, he was grief stricken. He sobbed and cried out, "My boy, my boy."

The family formed a funeral procession with their two wagons. They drove into Rapid City and buried their son far away and high on a hill.

TALE OF TWO FAMILIES (Meyers/Sparhawk)

What's In Our NAME?

by James C. Myers

HISTORY:

We are inclined to believe that persons of the same name are related by blood somewhere in the past. This is not so. We must go back to the 12th Century in Europe. It was at this time that people took a last or family name. Our name comes from the Latin word MAJOR.

GERMANIC ORIGINS:

In Germanic Countries MAJOR meant the head of a MEIRHOFF, a tract of land of at least 500 acres. Thus anyone in charge of a piece of land became a MEIER. Later the letter Y was introduced into the German alphabet and family names of MEYER came into being. In time spellings of the name were changed. The first E was dropped and S added. Thus MYERS came into being. The spelling in these three ways is more common in the Germanic Countries than SMITH and JONES are in America.

THE SURNAME IN AMERICA:

Just how many immigrants of these names came to America is not known. Pennsylvania was the only colony that required ship captains to submit passenger lists. These for the most part listed only males 16 years of age or older as they were required to take oath of allegiance to the crown. In the period 1727 to 1780 over 500 families came through the port of Philadelphia. How many came before this period or through other ports is not known as no records were required. However, in searching for our ancestors, I have found the name in Virginia as early as 1662 and in New York as early as 1709.

MORE SPELLING VARIATIONS:

There are other spellings that came about in America as a result of the immigrant trying to tell English speaking clerks who he was and the clerk writing the name in English as it sounded to his ears. Thus in America we find the name spelled even todays as MYERS, MEIRERS, MEYERS, MAHER, MAHOR, MOWYER, MOYER, MEIER, MIRE, etc. It is not even uncommon for a telephone book to list names the different ways.

DIALECTS:

We are quick to believe that a foreign language is PURE. It is not. They have their dialects the same as we have ours. A foreigner listening to an American from Maine, Georgia, Texas or Nebraska, for example, would be inclined to believe they were not all from the same country. Germans living near Poland were not entirely understood by Germans living near Italy, nor they by Germans living near France. If my history is correct there were about 50 plus dialects spoken in the Germanic Countries. Add these dialects to speech impediments, sore throats, head colds, lisps, etc. and it is small wonder our name has gone into American records in so many different ways.

A TOUCH OF HUMOR:

In my research I have met a lot of people. One told me that a MYERS should be easy to trace. Just go to any cemetery in the still of night and listen. If you hear someone talking ask him which MYERS he is, as we die the same as other folks but a MYERS never stops talking! Another asked me if I was a member of the contrary MYERS bunch. He said that bunch are never buried like anyone should be. Instead they are laid out until stiff and then driven into the ground like posts. One thing is sure. Regardless as to how we spell the name, we seem to have a good sense of humor.

EDITOR'S COMMENT: The above material was taken in great part from the "MYERS FAMILY" book, text by James C. Myers, photographs by Paul Myers. MYERS FAMILY is a marvelous accomplishment by these two gentlemen and I urge interested parties to contact James at the address above.

As mail crosses my desk from far corners of our nation, I find that not all people researching the covered surname variations are necessarily tracing back to the GERMANIC Countries. I have been contacted by families of French, Belgian, British and Irish ancestry as well as those originating in Germany, Switzerland, Austria, the Netherlands, etc. As James so aptly states, we may not all be related by blood. But as long as the spellings continue to vary through the Centuries of American and European records, we will be united by a common cause and if not by kinship, then by friendship.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

from the MEYER MIRROR

WARM REGARDS!

Winter, 1980

Dear Readers,

As we approach the Holiday Season, we have come to the end of our first year of publication. Interest in our newsletter and readership have increased dramatically over the past months and we hope to see continued growth. In addition to our regular readers, the MIRROR is now reaching many Genealogical and Historical Society Libraries in the United States and a few overseas.

Those who have been with us from the beginning may have noticed that we have grown from the original four pages (colored section) to include such added features as FOUNDING FATHERS, PAGE FROM OUR PAST, and THE FILES PROJECT, bringing us to about eight pages per issue.

For the above reasons and also due to increasing costs we will ask $4.00 for the year 1981 (4 issues). We regret this increase, but find it essential in order to continue a quality publication. Most readers on our mailing list have received all four of the 1980 issues. I hope that we can count on your continued support and encouragement throughout 1981. You can help to show this support by mailing your 1981 "dues" prior to the publication of our SPRING 1981 issue (approximate mailing date, 10 March 1981).

Many interesting items are now being planned for use in 1981. We hope to continue to offer features and projects which will interest you and aid in your ancestral searches. Suggestions and new ideas from readers are always welcome, as is constructive criticism which may help us to improve. We look forward to even more reader participation in the coming year.

Many thanks to all the people who made this year's MIRROR possible: all our readers, especially those who gave more than the requested amount, their generosity made it possible to send issues to Societies and libraries, to advertise, and make needed improvements. A very special acknowledgement to my fellow editors: Marie Edgar – QUERIES, Mildred Davis Myers – FOUNDING FATHERS/FILES PROJECT, Lelah Lough Achey – PAGE FROM OUR PAST.

May your holidays be warm with the glow of Family Tradition and may your bright New Year included continued participation in the "MEYER MIRROR."

Cordially,

Julie A. Hendricks

P. S. Many thanks to our readers who have prepaid their 1981 dues. God bless you for your show of support for our efforts!

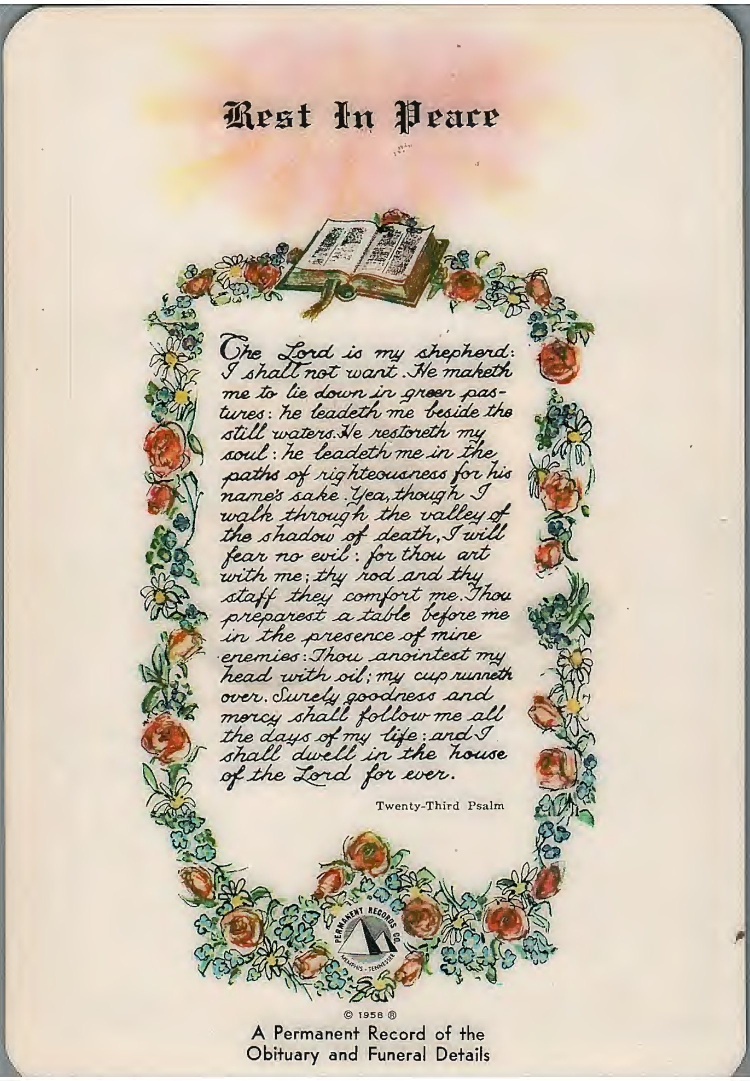
Mrs. Hattie E. Myers

CRYSTAL SPRINGS — Mrs. Hattie Eudora Myers, 97, died Tuesday at Hardy Wilson Memorial Hosptial in Hazlehurst. Services were 10 a.m. today at Stringer's Funeral Home with burial in Harmony Cemetery.

She is survived by her son, Rufus B. Myers of Moss Point; daughter, Mrs. Luetta Bryars of Crystal Springs; brother, J.B. Walters of Crystal Springs; five grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.



Rest In Peace

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Mr. John Meyers, Respected Citizen, Receives Much Attention When Ninety Years Old.

Mr. John Myers celebrated on Tuesday, March 9, his ninetieth birthday. Friends and relatives called during the day with gifts, fruit and flowers, which made the occasion a very pleasant one.

Mr. Myers has lived in Moss Point all his life, and it is interesting to hear him relate the history of Moss Point, dating back to when there were only a few small dwellings here, and follow him through the years up to the present time, when this town is rated as the fourth industrial city of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Myers recently celebrated their 65 wedding anniversary. Mrs. Myers is now 87.

This paper extends congratulations to Mr. Myers and his companion, who have grown up and along with the town they helped to build.
